(b) either:

- (i) the total nominal value of the Securities exceeds £25,000 or one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that body; or
- (ii) if the share capital of that body is of more than one class, the total nominal value of the shares of any one class in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest exceeds one hundredth of the total issued share capital of that class.

The nominal value of shares is their face value, not their current market value e.g. the nominal value of 10,000 "£1.50 shares" is £15,000 and they would not need to be declared even if they are worth, say, £45,000. If you are in doubt about the nominal value, please contact your broker.

Where there are no such interests, please indicate "none" in the relevant column.
