Average Life Expectancy (1999 – 2003)

Source: Local Knowledge; Life Expectancy at Birth

Standardised Mortality Ratio (SMR) (1999 – 2003)

Source: Local Knowledge; Standardised Mortality Ratios

The Standardised Mortality Ratio compares overall mortality in a locality with that for the UK as a whole. The ratio expresses the number of deaths in a locality as a percentage of the hypothetical number that would have occurred if the local population had experienced the sex/age specific rates of the UK in that year. The lower the figure, the lower the relative mortality.

In the table below the Health Intelligence and Clinical Evidence Team, Staffordshire Public Health have summarised some of the key health indicators. Those shaded red are statistically worse than the England average. The following measurements are statistically worse for those living in Eton Park:

- Life expectancy at birth for males (years)
- All-age all cause mortality rate per 100,000 population
- Premature mortality (rate per 100,000 population aged under 75)
- Smoking prevalence - adults (Mosaic estimates)
- Percentage of adult population eating five or more portions of fruit or vegetables a day (Mosaic estimates)
- Percentage of adult population doing no exercise in the last month (Mosaic estimates).

Private Sector House Condition Survey 2008

The 2008 House Condition Survey was distributed to a random sample of 1,250 private sector households and entailed full internal and external surveys plus supporting interviews with the occupying households. At the time of the survey there were 41,968 private dwellings, 38,849 of which were occupied (92.6%) and 3,119 (7.4%) were vacant. Housing conditions in the Borough are better than the national average for private housing; however, housing condition problems remain significant:

- 13,445 dwellings (32.0%) are non-decent
- 8,137 dwellings (19.4%) exhibit Category I hazards

Patterns of non-decent housing are similar to those for Category I hazards with higher rates for the Inner Burton and Burton/Horninglow areas. Rates of non decency are also higher in the Rural South. Poor housing conditions within the Borough are associated with households in social and economic disadvantage. A significant proportion of households living in non-decent homes are made up of the elderly (36.2%) and the economically vulnerable (48.8%).

Home energy efficiency

The home energy efficiency rates in private housing in the Borough are above the national average. East Staffordshire has an average SAP Rating of 56 compared to an average of 47 for all private housing in England. 7,585 dwellings fail the Decent Homes energy requirements representing 18.1% of all private dwellings.

Index of Local Deprivation 2010

The Indices of Deprivation 2010 (ID 2010) is a measure of multiple deprivation at a small area level. The small geographical areas the ID 2010 is based upon are called Lower Layer Super Output Areas (LSOA's) and each account for between 1,000 and 3,000 people. The purpose of basing the Indices upon LSOA's is to pinpoint small areas of deprivation that may otherwise be hidden within larger wards. The ID 2010 consists of an overall measure of deprivation and seven specific aspects – Income, Employment, Health and Disability, Education, Skills and Training, Barriers to Housing and Services, Living Environment and also Crime.

There are 32,482 LSOA's in England and four of these are located within Eton Park ward. Below is a summary of the key points arising from the ID 2010 for Eton Park's LSOA's. If the LSOAs fall within the top 10% or top 20% most deprived they are considered here to be deprived:

- Overall Deprivation: One LSOA is in the top 5% most deprived LSOAs in England in terms of overall deprivation and two are in the top 20% most deprived. These three deprived areas have all seen deterioration on their 2007 rankings. The fourth LSOA has seen an improvement in its ranking and is not deprived – it falls within the top 50% least deprived LSOAs.
- Income Deprivation: Three are in the top 20% most deprived for income deprivation.
- Employment Deprivation: One is in the top 10% most deprived for employment deprivation and one more LSOA is within the top 20% most deprived.
- Health & Disability Deprivation: One is in the top 10% most deprived for health & disability deprivation and one more LSOA is within the top 20% most deprived.
- Education, skills and training deprivation: One is in the top 10% most deprived for education, skills and training deprivation. Two more are in the top 20% most.
- Barriers to housing and services deprivation: None of the LSOAs are deprived in terms of barriers to housing and services deprivation.
- Crime Deprivation: None of the LSOAs are deprived in terms of crime.
- Living environment deprivation: Three LSOAs are in the top 5% most deprived for living environment deprivation.

According to the Indices of Deprivation 2010 Eton Park ward exhibits deprivation. In particular, one of its LSOA's is within the top 10% most deprived LSOA's in England for overall deprivation. Deprivation is an issue in three of the four LSOA's. The Living Environment domain is a particular concern.

Place Survey 2008 - 2009

All local authorities are required to undertake a Place Survey containing a standard set of questions which are designed to capture local people's views, experiences and perceptions. The aim is to use the findings to ensure that improvements for an area reflect local views and preferences. A random sample of 3,000 residents (aged 18 and over) were selected and 1,134 responses were received – a response rate of 38%. The findings set out below were calculated as a proportion of respondents who answered each question and exclude those who did not reply. The tables include a column for ranking within East Staffordshire, with a ranking of 1 being the most satisfied and 21 being the least satisfied.

The Local Area

Respondents were asked to select five factors they felt were most important in making somewhere a good place to live and they were then asked to select the five that were most in need of improvement in their local area. The results for East Staffordshire as a whole are set out below:

Most important	Most in need of improvement
The level of crime (65%)	Activities for teenagers (47%)
Clean streets (45%)	Level of traffic congestion (37%)
Health services (41%)	Road and pavement repairs (31%)
Affordable decent housing (36%)	The level of crime (26%)
Education provision (28%)	Public transport (25%)

Only one factor (the level of crime) is thought to be both important and in need of improvement which suggest the Council and its partners are performing well in the areas considered to be the most important to the local residents.

Respondents were asked how satisfied or dissatisfied they are with their local area as a place to live. In Eton Park 66% of respondents were very/fairly satisfied, which is below the Borough average (79%). The survey found that older respondents were more likely to be satisfied with their local area than younger respondents. Eton Park has a lower proportion of residents of pensionable age than the Borough average.

Respondents were asked how satisfied or dissatisfied they are with their home as a place to live. In Eton Park 79% of respondents were very/fairly satisfied which is below the Borough average (90%). The survey found that home owners were more likely to be satisfied with their home than those who were renting.
